FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Habitat hosts a thank you BBQ and presents a Golden Hammer Award.
Written by Jeremy Boetger, Habitat for Humanity of Greater Moses Lake Board Member

Habitat for Humanity of Greater Moses Lake and new homeowner Melissa hosted a thank you barbeque to show their appreciation to all of those who worked on and supported the construction of the ninth home that was built. The well-attended event was held at the Columbia Basin Job Corps carpentry building with the Job Corps culinary students doing the cooking. During the picnic Melissa thanked everyone again for their hard work to finish her home and how thankful she was to have a home of her own for her and her family. Dave Hunt of Casa Bella homes was also honored at the picnic by Habitat for Humanity of Greater Moses Lake with a Golden Hammer Award. This award is given to people or organizations that give outstanding service to the Habitat for Humanity Greater Moses Lake organization. Dave thanked his crew and his contractors for their hard work to complete the project.

There were 47 students from Job Corps of the Columbia Basin that assisted with various aspects of building the latest Habitat home.

Habitat for Humanity of Greater Moses Lake is in the process of building their 10th home for a deserving family.
